Stations of the Cross Fridays at 7:00 P.M.

The Stations of the Cross remind us of the last hours of Jesus' life and the manner in which He suffered His Passion and Death for our Redemption. The Church encourages us to make the Stations of the Cross a part of our Lenten spiritual journey.

❖March 20: Solemnity of Saint Joseph, Husband of Mary; Vespers at 7 p.m., reception to follow

On Monday, March 20, the Church will celebrate the Solemnity of Saint Joseph, the Husband of Mary. This is the patronal feast of the Sisters of St. Joseph and we want to honor them in the celebration of Solemn Vespers at 7:00 p.m. in the Cathedral. A reception will be held in the Rectory Courtyard and Verot Room immediately following Vespers. You all are invited to attend.

❖Corned beef on the Feast of St. Patrick?

This Friday is the feast of Saint Patrick. Many of you will want to be able to eat the traditional Irish fare of corned beef and cabbage, so you'll ask, "Can I do so?" Well, the Church permits a Catholic to replace one penitential practice with another in such a situation. So, in place of the abstinence from meat this Friday, maybe you abstain from gossiping that day or maybe you place a donation in the poor box as an act of almsgiving. Maybe you come to the Cathedral and spend 30 minutes in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament solemnly exposed in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. Whatever you decide, make it a true penance – one that moves you to conversion of heart toward God.

Save the Dates

One of the many requests that our Cathedral Parish Council is seeking to meet from you, our parishioners, is to provide more opportunities for spiritual growth. So, please make note of the following and save the dates!

- Saturday, April 29 – Parish Pilgrimage to Carmelite Monastery, Bunnell
- Saturday, May 20 – Parish Day of Prayer and Reflection at St. Joseph Academy

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

On the Second Sunday of Lent in 2014, Pope Francis, speaking at his weekly Angelus Address, reminded the thousands in Saint Peter's Square of the importance of the story of the Transfiguration as part of our Lenten journey. "Suddenly from on high the voice of the Father resounds proclaiming Jesus to be his most beloved Son, saying, 'Listen to him.' This word is important! Our Father said this to these Apostles, and says it to us as well: 'Listen to Jesus, because he is my beloved Son.'"

Not too long ago I was engaged in one of those classic discussions with a non-Catholic Christian who sincerely believed that we Catholics don't believe in the Bible. No matter what I said in response, she was convinced in her belief. I so wanted to shout, "Are you listening to me!" And maybe as the Church arrives at the Mount of Transfiguration this Second Sunday of Lent, that's the challenge God is giving us – listen to His Son, the Incarnate Word! Our reading, reflecting and praying the Bible regularly is the most sure-fire way to do this. Preparing for Sunday Mass by pre-reading the Scripture readings before arriving at Church is another.

But it doesn't stop there. As Pope Francis remarked at that same Angelus Address: "When we listen to the Word of Jesus and carry it in our heart, this Word grows. Do you know how it grows? By giving it to the other! The Word of Christ grows in us when we proclaim it, when we give it to others!" And maybe if we Catholics did that, more Christians would know that we believe in, know, and practice the great treasure that is the Bible!

Love, Father Tom

An Icon of Divine Mercy has been placed on the wall to the west of the main sanctuary. This icon was a gift from a "snowbird" parishioner several years ago, and I promised her that once we had completed the renovation of the Cathedral, I would find some place to hang it. One of the traditions of the Orthodox Church is that a candle is to burn next to icons of Christ and the Blessed Virgin Mary at all times. So, we have also put a candle to the left of the icon. If you would like to have the 7 -day candle burn for a specific intention, please contact the rectory office.

℘Cathedral Office/Rectory visitor parking

We realize that getting to the Cathedral office/rectory is becoming harder and harder. Therefore, we have changed the location of parking spaces for those needing to visit the office/rectory during weekday office hours.

The parking spaces for those who have an appointment or need to take care of things at the office/rectory are located in the "Bank of America" lot. There are two spots reserved. Just mention to the attendant that you have to go to the office/rectory. They will direct you to the appropriate spaces. These spots are for office/rectory visitors only and are intended to be short term.

We think you will find these spots much more parishioner friendly than past office parking spots. Please call ahead if you have mobility issues and we'll try to help with a closer spot.

❖Stewardship reflection for the Second Sunday of Lent

Our Gospel Reading on this Second Sunday of Lent recounts the Transfiguration as reported by Matthew. All three of the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke) give an account of this. St. Thomas Aquinas called the Transfiguration Jesus' "greatest miracle" in part because it is a miracle performed on Jesus Himself.

Jesus was transfigured in the presence of three of His Apostles: Peter, James, and John. To be "transfigured" implies that the Lord was completely transformed, not just in how He appeared but absolutely, inwardly as well. Jesus became so dazzlingly bright that it was difficult to look on Him. It was like looking directly at the sun.

During our time in Lent, we are called to a type of transformation, as well. In our cases it is more inward than outer. God asks us to try to seek conversion of mind and heart. Yet, only God can truly cause this type of conversion; we must be open to it for it to occur.

Stewardship is closely associated with conversion. People who give of themselves to build the Kingdom of God are disciples of the Lord. To be disciples, we must follow Jesus' example and teachings. His way of life literally becomes our way of life. For that to happen we must be transformed. That transformation can present challenges, but it also offers extreme joy. Stewardship challenges us to make conscientious decisions about our lives. Stewardship calls each of us to account for what God has given us, not only for the sake of knowing how much we have and how God has blessed us, but also to know how much God is calling us to share with others what He has given us.

Catholic Social Teaching: Option for the Poor and Vulnerable

As Catholics we are called to respond to the needs of those who find themselves on the margins of society. We are challenged to make the "option for the poor" to assess lifestyles, policies and social institutions in terms of their impact on the poor" (USCCB, Economic Justice for All). Catholics must look at the impact our lifestyle makes on the poor and vulnerable as well as the rest of creation - "Who is under your carbon footprint?" The marginalized are the most impacted by climate change, multinational corporate development and hoarding of natural resources. Engagement in the political sphere is a necessity to develop new forms of democracy, as a way of providing peaceful means of social change in bringing about a more just society (A Call to Action, Octogesima Adveniens). Thus says the LORD: "Do what is right and just. Rescue the victim from the hand of his oppressor. Do not wrong or oppress the resident alien, the orphan, or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place.'" - Jeremiah 22:3. Poverty and exploitation are the result of human action and must not be tolerated. An option for the poor requires alternatives that are just and truly humane. (On Human Work, Laborem Exercens).
