●If you need a low-gluten host so you can receive our Lord in His Most Precious Body at Holy Communion, please come to the sacristy before Mass and let the sacristan know.

●We provide a shuttle between the parking lot at Cathedral Parish School and the Cathedral for the 5:00 p.m. Masses on Saturdays and Sundays. The shuttle begins at about 4:15 and will get you back to your car after Mass.

❖Extraordinary Ministers to the homebound urgently needed

Cathedral Parish has an urgent need for Ministers to the Homebound, bringing the Holy Eucharist to men and women who are confined to their homes as a result of surgery, age, or chronic illness. This ministry allows the homebound to be refreshed with the Eucharist brought to them by members of the community, so they feel supported by their parish brothers and sisters. The outreach is very personal, with the minister bringing the Eucharist, spending 15 or 20 minutes visiting the sick person, and offering them a copy of the Sunday bulletin. Please contact Deacon Chuck Kanaszka, ckanaszka@gmail.com or 824-2806, to offer your assistance with this important ministry.

A Historic, Over-the-Top Amount!!!!
Thanks to all who made this happen!!!

We are happy to report that the 2017 Cathedral Festival netted over

$ 203,000.00

Many thanks to our Festival Chair, Kevin Partel and his team, all the great volunteers and to all who came out to support this year's Festival!!!

This is obviously the best Festival ever. The proceeds will go to help us meet the extra expenses that have been incurred as we help Cathedral Parish School recover from damages sustained from Hurricane Matthew. It will also assist us in providing for needs at the Cathedral Parish School Early Education Center. Thanks for supporting Catholic education in our community!

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"I remember my mother's prayers and they have always followed me.

They have clung to me all my life."

-- Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865)

A Happy and Blessed Mother's Day to all our mothers, grandmothers and the many women who are "other mothers" to us. Today is a special day in our nation to honor those whose gift of motherhood sustains us through life, death and everything in between. Whether living or deceased, take time to give thanks to God for the blessings received from your mother, your wife, and those others who show that there is nothing quite as strong as maternal love.

With the assurance of my prayers --

Love, Father Tom

Congratulations, Graduates!!!

Over the next couple of weeks, the Class of 2017 from our local high schools and elementary schools will be graduating. St. Joseph Academy will have graduation exercises this week and Cathedral Parish School will do so the following week. And we can't forget those in our public schools as well as those who are home-schooled. To all of you and your families --

Congratulations and best wishes for your future endeavors!!!

If you are a commissioned EM and would like to take Holy Communion to the patients at Flagler Hospital, please email Mary Ryan at maryatexit@aol.com or call (904) 342-2166. Requirements are: Commissioning as an Extraordinary Minister, completion of the class called "Protecting God's Children," and fingerprinting with background check. After that is completed and the parish has received your documentation, you will need a hospital ID and spend about 4 hours in orientation at the hospital. Our greatest needs are 1-2 hours on Saturday, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday. Some people do one day a month, others do every week, and still others do several times a month. We ask for a commitment of at least one day a month, although more is always welcome. In most cases you will split the hospital visits with one other person. We hope you will consider joining us in this very rewarding ministry.

❖ Stewardship reflection for the Fifth Sunday of Easter

The word "church" finds its roots in the Greek word ecclesia. However, a correct translation of that word is actually "an assembly of people, called out of their homes into a public meeting place." Thus, the Church is really the people who make it up; the use of the term in relation to a building has developed through time, but we must never forget that it is we who are indeed the Church.

That is a basic part of something St. Peter writes in our Second Reading. Peter says, "... like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house," in reference to the members. He is saying in effect that we are called to build a church with living stones, namely ourselves. We all also understand that for a structure to be most effective, every element is needed to keep it strong.

We, as the Church and as our parish, are no different. We need each person, each part of what is really the Church, to be like a living stone, active and involved. We are a faith community, not just a community of worshipers, but a community to reach out and serve others. To really do that we need each member to offer something of himself or herself.

In a message to a celebration about the Church being the people, Pope Francis said, "It is isolation that harms, not sharing. Being among people does not mean merely being open toward others, but also letting others get close to us." To be open, to be Church, requires each of us to do a part.

Boots on the Ground ministry serves Hurricane Matthew victims... and YOU can help!

"Boots on the Ground" ministry is a group of caring Catholics from many surrounding faith communities. We are funded by, and affiliated with, St. Johns Housing Partnership and our local St. Vincent de Paul Society. We are assisting in the recovery of people affected by Hurricane Matthew last October: families who have asked for help from SVDP, and have been deemed worthy of assistance. These are people who have fallen through the cracks, and are in dire need. Can you give of some of your Time, Talent, or Treasure to help someone who has no other means to help themselves? Our usual work day is every Saturday, 8 a.m. until... whatever you can spare of your precious time. If you can't get there until later in the day, whatever time you can offer will make a difference. All skill sets are needed: carpentry, painting, yard work, cleaning; or perhaps you could provide lunch and drinks. It is all time well spent! If you can only help during the week, we have needs for that also, and will get your boots on the ground. If you would like to help, please contact Dennis Kasten, (904) 377-1100 or drk196100@yahoo.com. God bless you!

May a Roman Catholic receive Holy Communion at another religious denomination's services?

The easiest answer to this is "no." However, like everything in law (both church and civil), there are exceptions to the rule.

First, a Catholic may not, under any circumstance, receive Communion in a Protestant church's religious service. This is covered in the Church's Code of Canon Law, canon 844. Just as non-Catholic Christians are not generally permitted to receive Holy Communion at a Catholic liturgy, neither may Catholics receive at a Protestant church. The Holy See's Instruction Redemptionis Sacramentum (issued in March 2004) reiterates this in paragraph 84.

Now for the exception: if a baptized Roman Catholic who has already received first Holy Communion is present for the celebration of the Eucharist in one of the "uniate" Catholic Churches, e.g., Byzantine Catholic, Maronite Catholic, etc., then the Roman Catholic may receive Holy Communion. In the Orthodox Churches, while Roman Catholic law would permit you to receive, the laws of the Orthodox Church do not. So, in this latter case, it is best to check with the Orthodox priest who is the celebrant of the Eucharist to see if he would permit you to receive.

WEEKLY OPPORTUNITY FOR SPECIAL OCCASIONS AND MEMORIALS

Anyone celebrating a special day, or wishing to honor someone's memory, is invited to do so by covering the cost of altar flowers, the Divine Mercy Icon candle, and/or the Blessed Sacrament Chapel sanctuary lamp. Deadline will be noon on Monday for the following week. Please contact the Rectory office at (904) 824-2806 for further information.
