A Message from Deacon Chuck and Darlene Kanaszka

We wish to thank you for all the prayers, words of assurance, love you have shown us, and help you have given to us over the last several years. Our daughter Diana has been blessed with a new heart and a new life. You all have been such a blessing to us since we arrived at the Cathedral and welcomed us with open arms. And you have continued to be by our side praying for our daughter and us over the last four years of waiting. We thank God for the blessings He has bestowed on Diana by giving her this new chance at life at the sacrifice of another. We will continue to pray for Diana's donor and for all of you for your support and prayers. Diana has had a strong support base and we thank you. Please continue to pray for Diana that she will do well with her new heart. May God bless you all and continuously watch over you.

Love, Deacon Chuck and Darlene

+ The 9 a.m. Ensemble: Rehearse on Thursday evenings from 7 p.m. till 8 p.m. in the choir rehearsal room. Of course, they sing at the Sunday, 9 a.m. Mass.

+ The Cathedral Women's Schola: This choir focuses on chant and a capella polyphony, and usually sings once a month at the Sunday, 5 p.m. Mass. The choir is also engaged at special Cathedral and Diocesan liturgies. ❖ Stewardship reflection for the Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

In last week's Gospel, we heard the story of the Canaanite woman (a Gentile) who appealed to Jesus for help, and her prayer and plea were answered. Part of the message of that is that the Kingdom of God is open to and offered to all peoples.

This week we hear Jesus say to St. Peter in the Gospel from Matthew, "I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven." An important part of the Vatican flag is two keys. Those keys, of course, represent the keys to the kingdom to which Jesus makes reference. Were you aware that one key is gold and the other silver? Interpretation is that the gold key represents spiritual power and the silver key represents worldly power.

We are also fond of images and more showing Saint Peter at the gates of Heaven deciding who is admitted and who is not. Nevertheless, the keys are reinforced in the Acts of the Apostles, and it is perhaps not that Peter opens the gates of Heaven, but Peter (and Paul as well) through his ministry and explanations make it clear that heaven (the kingdom) is available to all, Jews and Gentiles.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1023) states, "Those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified live forever with Christ. They are like God forever, for they 'see him as he is,' face to face." Pope Francis has spoken on this more than once. Recently, he stated, "The Lord has redeemed all of us, all of us with the Blood of Christ. However, we must meet one another doing good." Our call is clear.

Lord your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

¡Oh Señor, en tu eterno amor, no abandones la obra de tus manos!

ANNOUNCING...

Walking with Purpose
Enabling women to know Christ through Scripture

Are you interested in getting together with a group of women to explore your faith? You don't have much Scripture knowledge, but you would like to see how the Scriptures apply to your everyday life? If so, we invite you to consider joining Walking with Purpose at St. Anastasia Catholic Church. Meetings will be either Tuesday evenings or Wednesday mornings, beginning on September 19 or 20. Our 22-week foundational Bible study is designed for both women new to WWP as well as those with more Bible study experience.

Walking with Purpose is a Catholic Bible study for women that aims to bring women to a deeper personal relationship with Christ. Through personal study and small group discussions, the group helps to link our everyday challenges with solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church.

For questions or to be added to the contact list to receive more information, contact Allison DuBrow, allisonmdubrow@gmail.com or (407) 924-7965, or Evette Nowicki, evenow48@gmail.com or (303) 905-0030. On the cover: Saint Augustine, by Philippe de Champaigne, 1650. In this painting, the Flemish artist Philippe de Champaigne portrays Augustine in his study. In one hand Augustine holds a feather pen, and in the other, a flaming heart. The flaming heart – a heart on fire for God – was one of Augustine's traditional attributes.
