Coffee and Donuts after the 9 and 11 Masses

We are happy to have our coffee and donuts/bagels and cream cheese fellowship time following the 9 and 11 a.m. Masses back. Join us in the Cathedral's west courtyard to greet old friends and make new ones in your parish and among our visitors.

Thanks to the Knights of Columbus, Council 611 for hosting this each week from September through May.

"We are created for community, starting with the gift of being born into a family, our first community. In Amoris Laetitia, Pope Francis reminds us, 'The life of every family is marked by all kinds of crises, yet these are also part of its dramatic beauty. Couples should be helped to realize that surmounting a crisis need not weaken their relationship; instead it can improve, settle, and mature the wine of their union' (AL 232). In other words, even crises can reveal to us the giftedness of every human being."

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"We must give more in order to get more. It is the generous giving of ourselves that produces the generous harvest."

--- Orison Sewtt Marden (1848-1924)

With Autumn upon us, it's harvest time, too. Farmers are seeing what the yield of their crops are now after the Spring planting. Jesus often used such motifs in his parables to make the point of what has come to be known as "the harvest for heaven." This is the harvest that will happen in its fullness on the Judgment Day when Christ will "hand over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For Christ must reign until he has put all enemies under his feet" (1 Corinthians 15:24-25).

These final weeks of the liturgical year are always about the Last Things. How we will be judged by our Creator and Redeemer needs to be taken seriously. Dr. Marden's words of advice are a good way for each of us to examine what is happening in my life so that I can be part of the "generous harvest" of God. Jesus gave everything – His Life – for ours so that we could be citizens of the Kingdom. What changes might I need to make so that I am part of the great harvest of saints and all the holy ones?

Love, Father Tom

All Souls Day and All Souls Envelopes

This year All Souls Day will fall on Thursday, November 2. All Souls Mass Remembrance envelopes are included in the monthly envelope packets for those who receive envelopes. For those who contribute through Faith Direct or in some other manner, All Souls Remembrance envelopes are available at the entrance to the Cathedral and in the pews. Requests for the remembrance of loved ones in the novena of Masses for the dead will begin on Monday, November 2.

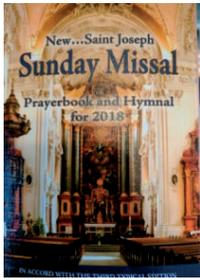

Please return these envelopes by Monday, October 30 so that the names may be included in our "Book of Remembrance."

❖ October 22: World Mission Sunday

Next Sunday, October 22 is World Mission Sunday. This is the 90th Anniversary of this observance which reminds us that no matter where we are, all of us are missionaries. The annual Papal Message for World Mission Sunday from Pope Francis frames this year's observance with the motto Mercy changes the World! The Pontifical Mission Society which coordinates all missionary activity in the world reminds us that all who are baptized are "One Family in Mission." Whether that mission is global or local, we are commissioned to be ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all. As Pope Francis tells us, "The mission of the Church is not to spread an ideology;... rather, the mission of the Church is to bring Jesus Christ Himself and the message of salvation."

NEED PRAYERS? If you or someone you know is in need of prayers, call 599-9455 or 824-2806 to be added to our prayer list.

❖ Stewardship reflection for the 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel from the Book of Matthew again includes parables. We have been hearing the Lord share parables with us throughout our readings in recent weeks. Interestingly Matthew contains 23 parables (or teachings classified as parables), while Luke has 28. Mark has only nine, and John has none.

The first parable we hear today is called The Parable of the Wedding Feast. In this story shared by Jesus for our benefit a king is hosting a wedding feast for his son. He sends out invitations and people ignore them or choose not to respond. It may seem somewhat remarkable to us that people turn down an invitation to a royal wedding feast.

Yet, the Lord invites us to join Him on a regular basis through Holy Scripture and the Sacraments. Many ignore the invitation, and in most cases are not even aware of the fact they have received it. Those who read this are aware of the invitation. The question is "How do we respond?"

What do we do after we attend a Holy Mass? What is our reaction to the reception of Christ's incredible gift in the Eucharist? We may not make light of it like some of the people in the parable, but if we merely go our separate ways, and do not strive to be active disciples, we are basically doing the same thing as those Jesus describes in this parable. In one of his first appearances Pope Francis declared, "Go make disciples of all nations." We cannot make disciples unless we are ourselves disciples.

“ANYONE WHO ENTERS THE CHURCH
ENTERS AN ATMOSPHERE OF LOVE.
LET NO ONE SAY, “I AM A STRANGER HERE.”
LET EVERYONE SAY:
“THIS IS MY HOME. I AM IN THE CHURCH.
I AM IN CHARITY. HERE I AM LOVED.”

-- BLESSED POPE PAUL VI
