❖ All Souls Day is November 2

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day) is fast approaching on Friday, November 2. You are invited to include your deceased family members and friends in the Novena of Masses that will be celebrated in our parish between November 2 and 11. If you receive your offering envelopes in the mail, use the special All Souls envelope to list the names of the deceased and make your offering (suggested minimum amount is $20.00, but every offering is accepted!). Others may use the All Souls envelopes that are provided in the church. Please return your offering to the Rectory office no later than Wednesday, October 31.

❖ Rite of Acceptance and Welcome celebrated today

Today at the 9:00 a.m. Mass, our parish will celebrate the Rite of Acceptance and Welcome from the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. This rite begins the formal process in which we accept those who have expressed a heart-felt desire to draw closer to Christ and His Church with a goal of being received into His Life through the Sacraments of Initiation. Please keep these men and women, boys and girls in your prayers as they journey with us, learning the life of the Gospel.

❖ Homebound Ministers Needed

We are in need of additional Homebound Ministers. So, if you are currently an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion in the Cathedral Parish and would like to expand your ministry to start visiting some of our homebound parishioners, we need you. You will need a background check if this has not been done within the last 5 years, and you will need to take the Protecting God's Children class if you have not already done so. Please respond to Deacon Chuck at the Cathedral Rectory, (904) 824-2806 or email ckanaszka@gmail.com.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS AND COMMEMORATION OF ALL SOULS

Friday, November 2 is the Commemoration of All Souls. Masses will be at 7:00 and 8:30 a.m. In addition, the First Friday Art Walk Concert at 6:00 p.m. will feature works from the Church's repertoire of hymns and chants, praying for celebrating its faith in the resurrection of the dead. This will be followed at 7:00 p.m. by Solemn Vespers from the Office of the Dead.

Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament
IN THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The 15th Ordinary Synod of Bishops has one more week of meetings. The Synod concludes next Sunday. With the subject of the synod on "Youth, Young Adults and Vocational Discernment," it has been interesting for me to follow what has been happening. As is often the case, what's really happening isn't in the official meetings of the delegates, but it's in the "after meetings" – around meals, in the many cafes of Rome, and the like.

One story that hit home to me was reported on Friday, October 12. One interesting part of this Synod is that there are 36 of delegates ranging in age from 16-34, representing the Church's young adults, who are fully participating in the Synod's process. A twenty-something delegate from Samoa expressed that young people are looking for clergy who are "father figures" and not Pharisees. In other words, young people seek priests and bishops who assist them in understanding the life of Christ and the Church, not ones who are just about the rules, regulations and laws that have to be followed.

My first thought was, "How profound!" One of the reasons that priests came to be called "Father" centuries ago was that their wisdom, insight and lived experience was sought out in order to assist the lay faithful in being able to better live the Catholic faith, especially in challenging times. Those times are certainly not limited to the past; I think we can agree that we are in very challenging times now.

Our Cathedral Parish has a lively, wonderful Youth Ministry that is led by our Youth Minister, Ryan Poticny. Some Sunday evenings there can be 50-plus teens gathered at Bosco House. Things such as this give hope for the near-term and long-term future of the Church. All of us can be part of their growth in the faith, not only in the manner by which we live the faith, but the times when we can share it over casual conversations in definite times of need and challenge.

Love, Father Tom

❖ Report on October 9 Cathedral Parish Council meeting

The Parish Council met on Tuesday, October 9. The first order of business was the proposal, discussion, and unanimous approval of three amendments to the Parish Council Constitution. Other topics of discussion included the following:

- Rich LaVista provided an overview of the work of the Parish Finance Council. This included an overview of the parish properties, outstanding loans, and various other financial obligations which the Finance Council oversees.

- The Parish Pastoral Plan, last revised in October 2014, was reviewed. It was decided that a revision is in order, after further reflection, to determine current goals and focus on actions. Future off-site meeting proposed for that purpose.

- Nocturnal Solemn Adoration was discussed: specifically expected demand, time schedules, priest/deacon availability and numerous security challenges. Left as an open item for further analysis of options.

- Father Tom discussed the postponement of the 2018 Cathedral Gala, primarily due to lack of sponsor support. All purchased tickets will be reimbursed. Also, new security gates are being installed on the east side of the Cathedral around the rectory to improve general security. The Visioning Committee will be tapped to put ideas together to address the rectory/office space and parking challenges.

The next meeting of your Parish Council is scheduled for Tuesday, November 13. We hope to see you there!

❖ Stewardship reflection for the Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today are wonderfully consoling and wildly challenging. If we take them to heart, they just might change our lives. For they should call us to profound gratitude for all that God has done for us and inspire us to live lives of thanksgiving and obedience to Him in response to His overwhelming love and mercy.

In the Gospel Reading, from Mark, Jesus tells us in His own words how we can thank Him and how our lives can reflect greatness in His eyes — we can imitate Him. He tells us, "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Our God has ransomed our lives. In truth, this "ransom" means our lives are not our own but belong to God. We must do what He asks us to do with them. And He has told us clearly what to do — serve others in love as we have been served in love by Him.

This is why service for the Christian Steward is not an add-on to our already busy lives. It is our life.

Over the course of the next week, take these readings to heart. Reflect on the remarkable love God has shown for you. Then look carefully at your daily life. Is it an imitation of the servant-love of your Brother and Savior? What changes do you need to make, perhaps just in attitude, or perhaps to the trajectory of your life as a whole, to live in grateful service to the One who loves you so?

SPIRITUAL ENRICHMENT OPPORTUNITIES FROM THE ST. JOSEPH RENEWAL CENTER

234 ST. GEORGE STREET

✠ Every Tuesday, 6:30-7:30 p.m.: Christian Meditation hosted by the Sisters of St. Joseph

Christian Meditation, deeply rooted in Christian tradition, aims "to allow God's mysterious presence within us to become more and more not only a reality, but the reality which gives meaning, shape and purpose to everything we do, to everything we are..." Cost: Donations accepted. Call (904) 824-1752 to register or at www.ssjfl.org.

✠ Volunteers needed at Father Miguel O'Reilly House

Father Miguel O'Reilly House, St. Augustine, has undergone renovations and is now ready to share with the public. We need those interested in serving as docents while learning about St. Augustine history, sharing the Catholic faith, and the history of the Sisters of St. Joseph. We will train and mentor all docents. Hours are Wed. - Sat.: 10:00 am - 3:00 pm, with shifts from 10-1 and 1-3. If interested, call Sister Bernard Joseph at (904) 325-3605.

Trust and Dependency on God

A time to reflect on our own feelings of trust and dependence — moving towards a complete reliance on God.

A good question to ask ourselves—not whether we depend on God, but do we realize our dependence on Him.
