Miraculous Medal Novena

on Tuesdays before 7 a.m. Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Augustine

A Prayer for ALPHA

Lord, our God, source of all life, you reveal yourself in the depths of our being drawing us to share in your life and love.
Bless each of us as we respond to your Spirit's invitation to help others
encounter your Anointed One, Jesus Christ.
Make the doors of our hearts,
our homes and communities
wide enough to receive
all who need love and fellowship,
and narrow enough to shut out all envy,
prejudice and pride.
Let us hasten to welcome the stranger,
and so welcome your Son,
who is Lord for ever and ever. Amen.

One Faith, One Family

The Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal (BASA) is now underway. By now, parishioners should have received a mailing from Bishop Estévez, asking for your family support and participation. Please prayerfully consider a pledge to the Appeal using the response card mailed to you or by completing the Commitment Envelope at Mass on BASA Commitment Sunday the weekend of March 2-3.

Our annual theme, "One Faith, One Family" reminds us that we are members of something much greater than ourselves. This year, BASA invites each of us to give thanks to the Lord in response to all that has been given to us by God. It is our job to be good stewards of all that we have been gifted with. Please prayerfully respond to this year's Annual Appeal with a gift of any amount – Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

❖ Extraordinary Minister training February 25 & March 4
Deacon Chuck Kanaszka will be conducting Extraordinary Minister Training in the upcoming weeks. If you are interested in becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, please contact Deacon Chuck at (904) 824-2806 or ckanaszka@gmail.com to be added to the list. The classes will be conducted at St. Benedict the Moor Catholic Church, 86 Martin Luther King Ave., starting at 6:30 p.m. on February 25 and March 4. Classes will be 2-2 1/2 hours each night and you are required to attend both nights.

WITHIN THE CULTURE OF DEATH.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Some Thoughts About Mass

Maybe it's because I'm the Director of Liturgy for the Diocese of St. Augustine, but I get to answer an inordinate number of questions about Sunday Mass attendance as well as the celebration of Mass, in general. So, maybe it's worth some time to share some of these questions and answers with you.

Is it okay to come late to Mass?

The general answer is no. The bishops at Vatican II made it clear that the two parts of Mass – the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist – form one act of worship. Therefore, the faithful (clergy and laity) are to be at the whole Mass. Just as a priest cannot start Mass from "somewhere in the middle of the rite," so everyone is expected to participate in the Mass from its beginning to the end.

Now if something happens that is beyond your control, for example, traffic congestion, true difficulty finding a parking spot, bad weather, then coming in late to Mass would be okay. What is never permitted is to come in late habitually. We are to form good habits, not reinforce bad ones.

Is it okay to leave Mass before it ends?

The easiest way to answer this would be to write, "See above." However, there may be legitimate reasons for a person to leave Mass early. For example, if unknowingly you are in a celebration of the Mass that has gone much longer than usual AND there is a true need for you to leave early, then that would be acceptable. Such needs may include the care of an elderly or sick person. However, leaving Mass early is to be the exception, never the norm.

How late can I come in for Mass and still be able to receive Holy Communion?

The Church's primary concern before this kind of question is answered would be, "Is the person ready to worthily receive Holy Communion?" The term many of us grew up hearing was being "in a state of grace." This means that (1) a person is Catholic, (2) has been properly catechized to receive the Sacrament, (3), is married according to the laws of the Catholic Church and (4) has not committed any mortal sins without first going to the Sacrament of Penance.

Since the Mass is one act of worship, the minimum that has been considered is that a person must be at Mass in order to hear the whole of the Gospel. But, as mentioned before, this should not become a habit. Rather, we should always strive to worship God in the entirety of the Mass.

Love, Father Tom

Cathedral Parish Parking: TRUE OR FALSE?

The Cathedral Parish owns the "Bank of America Lot."
PARTIALLY TRUE. The Parish and Diocese purchased the easternmost 2/3 of the lot (approximately 38 spaces). Bank of America owns the westernmost 1/3 of the lot. During bank hours, the westernmost 1/3 of the lot is exclusively for parking while banking.

I AM IN CHARITY. HERE I AM LOVED."

Roman Catholic Norms for Those Who Serve as a Godparent or Sponsor

The role of those who serve as godparents and sponsors in the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation is vitally important in the life of the Catholic Church. Those who are chosen for these roles are to show the person for whom they serve as godparent/sponsor a strong commitment to living the Catholic faith. And so, the Church has set up a minimum set of norms for godparents/sponsors:

- The godparent/sponsor must be designated by the one being baptized or confirmed;
- In the case of infants being baptized, it is the parents who designate the godparents;
- Parents may never serve as godparents/sponsors for their children;
- The godparent/sponsor must be a practicing Roman Catholic, be at least 16 years old and have received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist);
- They must be actively and regularly practicing the faith; if they are married, the Church must be able to recognize the marriage as sacramental.

In the United States, if the godparent/sponsor is not known to the pastor, a letter or affidavit is usually obtained from the person's parish stating that the person is a Catholic in good standing and may serve as a godparent/sponsor.

In the case of Baptism, a person may have two godparents; however, one must be male and the other female. A non-Catholic Christian may serve as a godparent, but they are listed as a "Christian witness" and the other godparent must fulfill the above norms.
