Cathedral Parish School at 1:30 p.m.

Friday evenings at 6:00 p.m.

1:30 p.m. Stations are cancelled in the event of inclement weather.

❖ Pastoral Council nominees sought

The Cathedral Pastoral Council is seeking nominations to fill vacancies on the Council which serves as an advisory board to the Pastor. The term is for two years. Council members are appointed to assist our Pastor in investigating, reflecting and recommending pastoral initiatives, programs and policies while also seeking ways to foster the spiritual well-being of the parish community. Meetings are held monthly from September through May along with an overnight retreat in August.

Persons may nominate themselves or others for service on the Council. For more information on the work of Council or to nominate someone please contact:

Ann Marie LaVista (321-536-0887 or annlavista@gmail.com);

Bob Wagner (904-616-4412 or rkawagner2304@gmail.com);

or Mark Flippin (904-669-0923 or bluesband2495@gmail.com).

❖ Urgent need for Ushers once again

We need at least one new Usher for both the 11 a.m. Mass and the 5 p.m. Mass on Sundays. If you attend any of the other Masses, we could use your help there as well. Please consider this as a ministry for yourself or your entire family. Contact Deacon Chuck at the Rectory at (904) 824-2806 or email ckanaszka@gmail.com.

Penance Service for Lent

The annual Penance Service for Lent will be held on Monday, April 8 beginning at 6:00 p.m. Ten priests will be available to hear confessions (including Spanish).

Make plans now to come that evening and continue making your spiritual preparation for the celebrations of the Sacred Triduum.

PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

Next Sunday the Church enters Holy Week with the commemoration of Christ's entry into Jerusalem and the proclamation of His Passion and Death.

Palms will be distributed and blessed at the beginning of all Masses for the feast. At the 11:00 a.m. Mass, Bishop Estévez will preside with the Solemn Procession of the Blessing of Palms in the west courtyard (weather permitting).

[Please Note – If you have palms from previous years, these should be disposed of by burning them.]

❖ Attention those who have signed up for palm braiding

We will be working in the courtyard area between the back of the Cathedral and the Rectory on Thursday, April 11 and Friday, April 12. If the weather is a problem we will move indoors. We will begin around 8 a.m. Please bring some small scissors for trimming palm branches. If you need more information, please call Anne Bocchieri and leave a slow, clear message. Thank you for taking your time to participate.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Our parish's Lenten Penance Service will be celebrated tomorrow (Monday) evening beginning at 6:00 p.m. Ten priests will be available to hear confessions and offer sacramental absolution. In addition to being a great way to spiritually prepare for the coming celebrations of the Sacred Triduum, confession of our sins is part of the annual Easter duty we have as Catholics, particularly if we have committed any grave, that is, mortal, sins.

While the Easter Duty is not spoken of much anymore, the Code of Canon Law does in canon 920. It's what canon lawyers call a "bare minimum law." Catholics, once having received their First Communion, are required to receive Holy Communion at least once a year, preferably during the Easter season (Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday). Confession, as part of the Easter Duty, becomes necessary because Catholics, who are eligible to receive Communion, are never to do so after having committed a mortal sin until having confessed the sin in the Sacrament of Penance. All of us are sinners. We should never delude ourselves in thinking otherwise. However, in God's mercy and through His Son's ministry, the Church has been given the Sacrament of Penance to keep us in God's grace.

The history of the Easter Duty is fascinating to me. The first mention of it is at the Council of Agde (France) in the early 6th century. One of its canons noted that if Catholics did not receive Holy Communion on the feasts of Christmas, Easter and Pentecost than they were no longer considered to be "in communion" with the Church. Over time, this canon became more widely applied. In 1215, at the Fourth Lateran Council, the precept to receive Holy Communion, at least during the Easter season, became universal primarily because Catholics had stopped receiving the Most Blessed Sacrament out of fear. The bishops at that Council wanted the faithful to know that reception of Communion was a necessary part of being Catholic.

Some in the United States will remember when the precept that the Easter Duty is to be made anytime between Ash Wednesday and Trinity Sunday. This was a holdover of a dispensation given to Great Britain during the time of the Reformation. As priests were not always available, the laity were granted an extension to fulfill the duty. The permission was never lifted and, when Britain began to establish colonies on this side of the Atlantic, the same laws applied here as there. To this day, that law permitting the duty to be fulfilled in the Lent and Easter seasons remains in force – even here!

Love, Father Tom

Hence the most perfect of all devotions is undoubtedly that which conforms, unites, and consecrates us most perfectly to Jesus Christ. Now, since Mary is of all creatures the one most conformed to Jesus Christ, it follows that among all* devotions that which most consecrates and conforms a soul to Our Lord is devotion to Mary, His Holy Mother, and that the more a soul is consecrated to her the more will it be consecrated to Jesus Christ" (St. John Paul II quoting St. Louis de Montfort in Rosarium Virginis Mariae #15).

The Consecration Day is Monday May 13 on the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima. If you would like to join us in a group preparation setting, we will be meeting at the St. John Bosco House (10 Sebastian Ave.) on the following Saturdays at 10:15-11:45 a.m. and 7:15-8:45 p.m. (morning and evening sessions are the same): April 6, April 13, April 20 (evening session will be modified on this day because of Easter Vigil), April 27, May 4, and May 11.
