Saturday, November 9 is the anniversary of the dedication of the church in Rome that serves as the cathedral of the Pope as Bishop of Rome. The "Lateran Basilica" is one of the four major basilicas of the Eternal City. Since our Cathedral is a minor basilica, this is one of the days that we are called upon to pray for the Pope as well as the unity of the Universal Church. If possible, please join us for Mass at 7:00 a.m.

Blessing of New Liturgical Ministers

All new liturgical ministers are to receive the Church's blessing before they begin their service. Next weekend (November 9 and 10) at the Saturday 5:00 p.m. Mass and the Sunday 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Masses, our pastor, Fr. Tom Willis, will bless our parish's new lectors, altar servers and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion. Please keep our new ministers in your prayers.

Ride the unchanging trajectory of Catholic writers to discover who we are called to be in 21st century America. Welcome meeting: Sunday, November 3, 2:30 p.m.-4 p.m., St Benedict's Rectory. Call (904) 342-2166 or email mkrs4818@gmail.com to register. All are welcome.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In mid-October I was able to take a week of vacation. Because I needed to be in New York City for a consultation on a church renovation, I decided to start my "days off" once I had finished that work. Autumn in New England is a wonderful time. The crisp, cool mornings and the beautiful tapestry of colors amid rolling hills and mountains is a great experience.

On a Sunday afternoon stroll at a state park in Massachusetts, as the leaves crunched beneath my every step, the symbols of grace from the beauty of nature (God's glorious Creation) were apparent. Leaves of green that proclaimed the glory of the Risen Christ as they appeared in the Spring had passed through their life cycle, were dead and now awaited a kind of burial in the winter's snow, yet to come. The liturgical year of the Church journeys the faithful through this cycle again and again, year in and year-out -- from birth to life to death. This is our life cycle, too. And it's the cycle that Jesus, the Son of God, fully experienced as he came among us, through the Blessed Virgin Mary, to share our life.

Death is a part of life. But for Christians our belief that Jesus has triumphed over death brings about new beginnings that are eternal. November and the early weeks of Advent which are right around the corner are the Church's time to remind us of this reality AND the transformative grace that comes from God alone.

May a Roman Catholic receive Holy Communion at another religious denomination's services?

The easiest answer to this is "no." However, like everything in law (both church and civil), there are exceptions to the rule.

First, a Catholic may not, under any circumstance, receive Communion in a Protestant church's religious service. This is covered in the Church's Code of Canon Law, canon 844. Just as non-Catholic Christians are not generally permitted to receive Holy Communion at a Catholic liturgy, neither may Catholics receive at a Protestant church. The Holy See's Instruction Redemptionis Sacramentum (issued in March 2004) reiterates this in paragraph 84.

Now for the exception: if a baptized Roman Catholic who has already received first Holy Communion is present for the celebration of the Eucharist in one of the "uniate" Catholic Churches, e.g., Byzantine Catholic, Maronite Catholic, etc., then the Roman Catholic may receive Holy Communion. In the Orthodox Churches, while Roman Catholic law would permit you to receive, the laws of the Orthodox Church do not. So, in this latter case, it is best to check with the Orthodox priest who is the celebrant of the Eucharist to see if he would permit you to receive.

Roman Catholic Norms for Those Who Serve as a Godparent or Sponsor

The role of those who serve as godparents and sponsors in the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation is vitally important in the life of the Catholic Church. Those who are chosen for these roles are to show the person for whom they serve as godparent/sponsor a strong commitment to living the Catholic faith. And so, the Church has set up a minimum set of norms for godparents/sponsors:

- The godparent/sponsor must be designated by the one being baptized or confirmed;
- In the case of infants being baptized, it is the parents who designate the godparents;
- Parents may never serve as godparents/sponsors for their children;
- The godparent/sponsor must be a practicing Roman Catholic, be at least 16 years old and have received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist);
- They must be actively and regularly practicing the faith; if they are married, the Church must be able to recognize the marriage as sacramental.

In the United States, if the godparent/sponsor is not known to the pastor, a letter or affidavit is usually obtained from the person's parish stating that the person is a Catholic in good standing and may serve as a godparent/sponsor.

In the case of Baptism, a person may have two godparents; however, one must be male and the other female. A non-Catholic Christian may serve as a godparent, but they are listed as a "Christian witness" and the other godparent must fulfill the above norms.

Cathedral Parish Parking: TRUE OR FALSE?

If I have a parish parking permit, I can leave my vehicle in the "Bank of America lot" after Mass.

PARTIALLY TRUE. Parishioners do not have to rush to their vehicles after Mass. A limited amount of time is allowed for visiting after Mass or for coffee and donuts, etc. For the 5 p.m. Masses, vehicles must exit the lot by 6:45 p.m.; 7 a.m. Mass by 8:45 a.m.; 9 a.m. Mass by 10:45 a.m.; and 11 a.m. Mass by 12:45 p.m. Vehicles left in the lot after those times will be required to pay when exiting the lot.

You are not alone...

There is no need to feel alone when real help is available for an unplanned pregnancy. Caring Choices offers help through counseling, support, education, resources, and referrals. This is one decision not to face alone! Call (866) 901-9647.

If you are struggling with emotional or spiritual pain following an abortion, there are two post-abortion healing ministries available that will lovingly help transform your pain to hope, and through reconciliation provide peace: Project Rachel, (904) 923-9203, with professional counselors and individual priests; and Rachel's Vineyard, (904) 221-3232, a group weekend retreat.
