Mass will be at 9:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 28 in the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Augustine.

[P.N. – This is the only Mass in the parish on Thanksgiving Day.]

Cathedral Parish Offices will be closed

The Season of Advent

Advent begins next Sunday. So many wonderful traditions from Christianity are part of the weeks leading to the celebrations of Christ's Nativity. One of those is the Advent wreath which is a nice way to keep holy expectation in your home during the season. The U.S. Bishops have resources for you to faithfully observe Advent in your family along with a printable Advent calendar here:

<http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/liturgical-year/advent/>

Help Catholic Charities Assist Local Families During the Holidays

You can brighten Thanksgiving and Christmas for local families in need by donations of gift cards to Catholic Charities – St. Augustine Bureau. Gift cards of $25 from Target or Walmart as well as grocery stores such as Publix and Winn Dixie are the best way to assist our area Catholic Charities bureau in providing assistance for the approaching holiday season. You can drop off donations or mail them to 3940 Lewis Speedway, Suite 2103, St. Augustine, FL 32085. Other monetary donations are always accepted through their website, www.ccbstaug.org.

❖Synopsis of November 12 Cathedral Pastoral Council Meeting

The Pastoral Council met on Tuesday, November 12. Agenda items included:

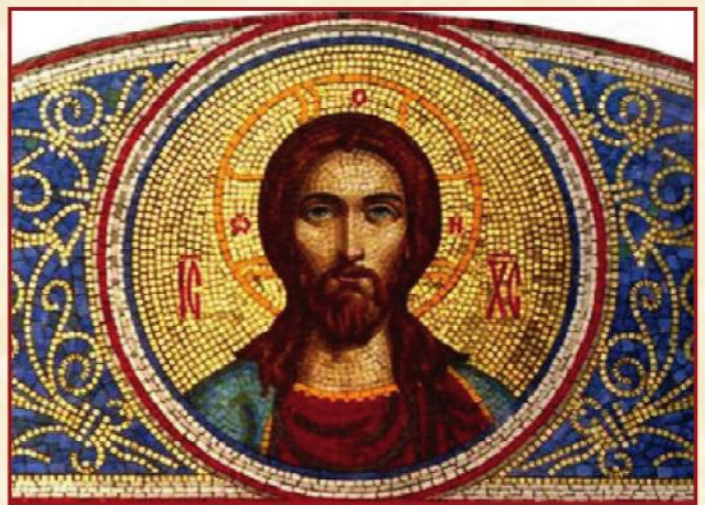

Parish Ministry Survey/Sign-Up Update: Jean Broglio gave a report from the Sign-Up Sunday that occurred on September 7 and 8. Many thanks to all those who continue volunteering to support your parish with your invaluable time and talents! Ministry sign-up applications will be included in the new parishioner welcome packets.

Diocese of St. Augustine Strategic Plan: Fr. Tom presented an overview of the DoSA Strategic Plan workshop that the Diocese offered to pastors. Now he wants advice and counsel from the Council to best discern our Parish's plan.

The next meeting of your Parish Pastoral Council is scheduled for Tuesday, December 10. We hope to see you there!

Mission Statement of the Cathedral Parish St. Augustine, Florida

WE ARE CHRIST'S EYES, EARS, MOUTH, HANDS, AND FEET—SENT OUT TO DO JUSTICE, ESPECIALLY FOR THE POOR AND OPPRESSED, TO MINISTER TO THE NEEDS OF THE COMMUNITY, TO BE FAITHFUL STEWARDS OF GOD'S CREATION—AWAKENING FAITH AMONG THE HOPELESS, AND PROMOTING LIFE EVEN WITHIN THE CULTURE OF DEATH.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

On this final LORD'S DAY of the 2019 liturgical year, the Sacred Scriptures may cause us to do a double-take. In the Gospel passage from the Gospel according to Luke we will find Jesus on the cross in dialogue with the two criminals who were crucified alongside of him. But before that we will hear Saint Paul in the Letter to the Colossians declare "he is the image of the invisible God" (Col 1:15). What a stark contrast! Often we picture in our imaginations God reigning as a kind of monarch from a throne in heaven. This image, for most, is preferred to that of what seems to be a crucified criminal.

People of faith know the contradiction and are generally comfortable with it. This isn't true, though, for those who do not know or have yet to experience life in Christ. His faithful disciples learn that the cross is an absolute requirement for anyone to really follow Him. The cross is not the end of the story, but there is a need in Christianity to embrace sacrifice and suffering for the good of the whole. When God first created the world in all its beauty, He did so not for Himself but for the crown of His creation – man and woman. The cross becomes the instrument that restores humanity to our former condition of sharing life with God and the beauty of all creation.

Invited to be missionary disciples, we are invited to bring this message of joy and good news to the many who either (1) no longer live this faith or (2) have never had the opportunity in grace to experience this gift of God's love. In the weeks ahead, leading to the holidays, who can you help see anew with the eyes of faith?

Love, Father Tom

Cathedral Beachside Ball ~ Thank You!

On September 29 over 300 people – parishioners and many friends of the Cathedral – gathered at Serenata Beach Club for the Cathedral Beachside Ball. The proceeds were designated for relief in the Bahamas following the devastation from Hurricane Dorian.

A check in the amount of $24,603.12 was sent to the foundation established by the Archdiocese of Nassau in the Bahamas to receive funds to assist them in their recovery efforts.

Thank you for your generosity in supporting this event. Many thanks, once again, to Don and Gloria Glisson for their generosity in making this event happen!

❖ Giving Tuesday, December 3

The Tuesday after Thanksgiving each year is Giving Tuesday, a day to thank God for the blessings that he has bestowed upon us during the year and to look within ourselves to see how we can best use our talent and treasure to help others. This year, the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Augustine is building upon that feeling of generosity and compassion by asking our parishioners to prayerfully consider enrolling in eGiving for your recurring weekly offering.

By using eGiving, you are supporting our parish's shared mission to give back to others and spread the word of God. We are excited about Giving Tuesday and all the miraculous work our parish can do in our community, with your support.

Enrolling in eGiving is a safe and secure way to give to our parish and getting started is easy—just visit faith.direct/FL144. Your gifts and your participation are a blessing to us, and we ask that you prayerfully consider making a donation to the Cathedral using Faith Direct on Giving Tuesday, December 3, 2019. God bless you!

❖ Knights of Columbus Refund Support Vocations Program benefits seminarian Filippo Schiavo

As the strong right arm of the Church, the Knights of Columbus are committed to providing moral, financial and spiritual support to future priests and religious at all stages of their formation. Through a program called Refund Support Vocations (RSVP), councils and parish families raise funds to support seminarians in their area. Councils also provide their "adopted" seminarian or religious aspirant with moral support and prayers for their success.

This year First Florida Council 611 has chosen seminarian Filippo Schiavo to sponsor. Filippo is a 2nd year seminarian at St. John Vianney College Seminary in Miami. He entered the Seminary straight from high school and is a member of the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Augustine along with his family.

In addition to the Council's $500 in financial support, the Council collected and sent letters of prayers, support and encouragement during the month of October to Filippo. First Florida Council 611's financial donation will aid Filippo with his costs to attend St. John Vianney College Seminary. Congratulations, Filippo, and continue on the heavenly path that God has chosen for you, spreading His Gospel as you move forward in His teachings.

❖Florida Adoption Month

November is Florida Adoption Month, a time to celebrate adoption finalizations, express thanks to the parents, staff and many stakeholders who work throughout the year to find permanent families for children in need, and bring attention to the children who are still searching for their forever family. On any given day in Florida, there are more than 800 children available for adoption without an identified family. This includes large sibling groups, teenagers, and children with medical conditions.

During the month, Florida will highlight "30 Days of Amazing Children" to focus on the children who are still waiting and hoping for a family of their own. There are many who can make a positive difference for a child in need of a family.

For more information on available children, how you can start your adoption journey, and associated benefits, please visit www.adoptflorida.org or call 1-800-96-ADOPT. Together, we can ensure children without a family can find one who will love and support them!
