FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

On this Sunday after Christmas as the Church celebrates the Feast of the Holy Family of Nazareth – Jesus, Mary and Joseph – through an initiative of the Knights of Columbus we are giving the families of our parish the opportunity to consecrate their family to the Holy Family.

In the midst of much confusion in the world, today is an occasion to be reminded about the life of this Holy Family. Pope Francis, in speaking about Jesus, Mary and Joseph, has often reminded his hearers that they had God as the Lord of their home. From the stories of Jesus' infancy the priority of believing in God, following His direction, and worshipping Him had primacy of place among them. Our Holy Father also often speaks of how this family were refugees – forced away from the homeland into Egypt in order to protect their new-born Son. While the Gospels do not say much of what happened to them or what they did while in Egypt, we can safely presume that having God as Lord in their home continued to guide them even in a foreign land.

In the Prayer of Consecration that we will use today, the prayer states: "May we be completely united in a love that is lasting, faithful and open to the gift of new life." That "love" is, as we know, the Love that is God Himself! May He be the true Lord of all our families.

Love, Father Tom

❖ January 3, 6 p.m.: First Friday Art Walk Recital at the Cathedral will feature Hirono and Philip Borter

The Cathedral is pleased to welcome back husband and wife duo Hirono (violin) and Philip (cello) Borter for the First Friday Art Walk Recital on January 3 at 6 p.m.. This engaging and extremely musical couple will offer treasures, both familiar and unfamiliar, from the violin/cello repertoire. As always, the concert is free, and a goodwill offering will be taken to help cover the musicians' costs. You may learn much more about Hirono and Philip at their website, www.duo-b.com. Contact Bernie Sans, cathstaugmusic@gmail.com, for more information.

❖ “Pivotal Players” study program begins January 13

Join us as we continue to hear from Bishop Barron about the next two “Pivotal Players” — those saints, artists, mystics, and scholars who not only shaped the life of the Church but changed the course of western civilization. This new program will begin on Monday, January 13 and Thursday, January 16 at 8:30 a.m. It will feature Fulton J. Sheen, the Communicator, and Flannery O'Connor, the Storyteller. We will be meeting at the St. Benedict the Moor Rectory.

So, please register for this study program and walk with Bishop Barron as he traces the lives and contributions of these two pivotal figures. For more information, please contact Cheryl Kavanaugh kavcon@flash.net or (904) 540-2565. Looking forward to seeing you.

Praised by the San Francisco Chronicle for its “tonal luxuriance and crisply etched clarity,” Chanticleer is known around the world as “an orchestra of voices” for its seamless blend of twelve male voices ranging from soprano to bass and its original interpretations of vocal literature, from Renaissance to jazz and popular genres, as well as contemporary compositions. Chanticleer’s 2019-20 season is the fifth under the direction of Music Director William Fred Scott.

In re: the Bulletin Prayer List: PLEASE NOTE!

It's time to begin the annual update of the Prayer List. The Prayer List will be completely updated for the bulletin of January 5, 2020.

With 100-plus names on the prayer list as we approach the end of this year, it's time to do some bulletin "housekeeping." I personally know of many names that need to remain on the prayer list moving into 2020, and I'm sure that you, dear readers, know of many more. If there is a name that you wish to retain on the prayer list, please email Shannon McKay, bulletin editor, ssmckasavant@aol.com, to let me know; or you may convey this information by calling the Rectory, 824-2806, and it will be passed on to me. (And of course, it's a simple matter to replace a name that I may remove in error.) Thanks in advance for your help! Shannon McKay
