❖February 11, 6:30 p.m.: Pastoral Council meeting
The Cathedral Pastoral Council meets on Tuesday, February 11 at 6:30 p.m. in the Bracken Room of the Bishop Baker Parish Center. All parishioners are welcome to attend.

Our parish relies on the support of everyone in our parish family to help us further our mission this year. Thankfully, there is an easy way for all of us to recommit ourselves this year to supporting the Cathedral Basilica of St. Augustine through eGiving via Faith Direct. Enrolling in online giving will simplify your monthly budgeting while also providing the Cathedral with consistent, reliable support for our parish family. If you haven't signed up yet, don't worry, it's easy to get started - simply visit faith.direct/FL144. God bless you!

Did you know that the Cathedral Basilica of St. Augustine pays a small fee for all gifts made using credit cards?
Faith Direct is now offering a way for Cathedral Basilica of St. Augustine families to give a little bit extra each month to offset these processing costs. We ask you please to prayerfully consider adding this 2.5% processing offset to your regular tithing so that the Cathedral can receive the full amount of your gifts each month. If you manage your giving online, you can log into your Faith Direct account at faithdirect.net and check the box on the page where you can update your payment information. You can also contact Faith Direct's customer service team (via the Faith Direct website) to make the change for you.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish family!

THE BLESSED SACRAMENT CHAPEL SANCTUARY LAMP
IS DONATED THIS WEEK BY LAURA BLAND
IN MEMORY OF HELEN COOK

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

February is Black History Month in our nation. It has been observed every year since 1976, but its beginnings are from 1915 — the 50th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln emancipating slaves in the United States. There is a rich heritage and history of African Americans in our own City, too, that stretches back to our founding in 1565. As you can imagine, the history is not always showing our best as humans, but we have to learn from our history so as not to repeat mistakes.

Since the founding of our nation, eleven Catholics have been declared saints — none are black. However, several are on their way to be "raised to the altars." Among them is Father Augustus Tolton (1854-1897) whose cause for canonization is being shepherded by the Archdiocese of Chicago. Many of you were in the Cathedral last year and saw a dramatization of his life that, in turn, touched our lives. Others include:

Venerable Pierre Touissant (1766-1853), born in Haiti but lived much of his life in New York City where he served the poor with distinction.

Julia Greeley (c. 1833-1918), born as a slave in Missouri, she moved to Colorado where she became known as "Denver's Angel of Charity."

Venerable Henrietta Delille (1812-1862) from New Orleans, where she found the Sisters of the Holy Family, a congregation of religious in the USA for women of color.

Mother Mary Lange (c. 1784-1882), born in Cuba, she founded the Oblate Sisters of Providence (the first congregation for women of color) and eventually came to Baltimore where she established the first Catholic school for children of color in the Unites States.

Thea Bowman (1937-1990), a convert to Catholicism, she joined the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration and became a voice against racism and prejudice.

During this month, look into the lives of these holy ones and rejoice in how they help us know the wonders of God!

Love, Father Tom

Grow Faith in a Circle

Join our Small Group "Encounter Circle"
It's a great way to get connected!
We meet on the 2nd and 4th Mondays of each month at 6:30 p.m. in a parishioner's home. We share the Sunday scripture readings, the Homily message, and our lives. For more information, contact Bill Blattner: (904) 325-5431 or email: encountermorestaug@gmail.com.

As we conclude our 30 Days of Prayer and look forward to the start of Alpha this Monday, February 10, please:

- Pray that every guest feels welcomed at the first session.
- Pray that hosts and helpers are able to personally greet and connect with each guest.
- Pray that guests will feel confident to share some of the questions they may have.
- Pray that the Holy Spirit will prompt questions in people's minds that would help them consider the person of Jesus Christ.

❖February 29: Sunday Afternoons in Our Lives

A "Saturday Morning" talk on Freedom through Forgiveness

Poems, songs, even self-help articles have been written about the Sunday afternoon blues! In recalling the years of Sunday afternoons in our lives, we might be able to uncover why it is written in James 1:8, "Count it all joy!" In reflections and prayer, we look to encounter Christ our Savior, Healer and Deliverer: Christ the same, yesterday, today and forever! Presented by Cheryl Sansone at the St. Joseph Motherhouse on Saturday, February 29 from 9 a.m. until noon. Donations appreciated. To make reservations, call or email Sister Jane at (904) 824-5894 or stjosephrenewal@ssjfl.org.

Taking action to protect God's great gift to us, Mother Earth

"...human beings frequently seem to see no other meaning in their natural environment than... consumption."

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP RECOMMENDATION

Reduce acquisition.

The sum total of all our daily purchases has a massive impact on the environment. The associated destruction of nonrenewable resources, the global warming emissions and industrial toxins from manufacture and transportation of "stuff" really adds up. Examine what you really need, where it comes from, and whether it needs to be a "new" purchase. Pope Francis urges us to live more simply, and to be mindful of our impact on and interdependence with nature.

Transfer of Cathedral Parish Early Education Center to the Office of Superintendent of Schools

To ensure the long-term viability of the Cathedral Parish Early Education Center (EEC), its operation is being transferred to the Diocese of St. Augustine's Office of the Superintendent of Schools. Over the past several years, as operating deficits continued, a Committee was formed, led by Parish Finance Council Chair Rich LaVista, to make recommendations on steps to alleviate the debt and grow the programs at the Early Education Center. In turn, the Committee unanimously made this recommendation.

The Superintendent's Office already operates several such Centers around the Diocese, and they are in the best position to operate our community's EEC.

While operation of the EEC will be diocesan, the property will remain owned by the Cathedral Parish.

❖February 22: Day of Reflection for prison ministers and new volunteers

The Diocesan Prison Ministry program keeps growing, with more facilities being added and more inmates wanting coverage at existing facilities. We are asking you to pray and see if the Holy Spirit might be calling you to join our Prison Ministry Team in some capacity. A Day of Reflection for existing and new volunteers will be held on Saturday, February 22 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Macclenny. For more information, visit https://www.dosafl.com/ministries/prison-ministry/.

❖St. Vincent de Paul Society needs your help!

The St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Augustine currently is overwhelmed with requests for assistance, and needs volunteers to work with us as we visit those in need. Our work helps to assure that folks are able to move forward as they face life's challenges. If you would like to be part of this very rewarding ministry, please call Cheryle Horan at our office, (904) 217-8097.

Volunteers for the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store also are urgently needed. The Thrift Store is the support for our outreach ministry. There are many areas in which to help in the store: sorting, stocking, cashier, warehouse are a few examples. Please contact the store manager, Jesus Roman, (904) 824-3333.

❖Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal is underway

Our Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal (BASA) is now underway. You soon will receive a mailing from Bishop Estévez asking for your support and participation. Please prayerfully respond to this year's Annual Appeal with a gift of any amount by using the response card mailed to you or by completing a commitment envelope at Mass the weekend of February 22-23. Our annual theme, "One Faith, One Family" reminds us that we are members of something much greater than ourselves. This 150th anniversary year, BASA invites each of us to join as a faith community in support of the beautiful mission of our Church. We are called to be good stewards of all of our gifts.

Cathedral Parish Parking: TRUE OR FALSE?

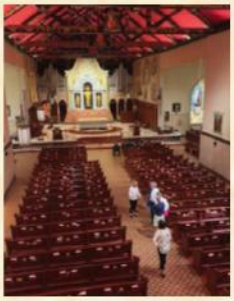

The Cathedral Parish owns the "Bank of America lot."

PARTIALLY TRUE. The Parish and Diocese purchased the easternmost 2/3 of the lot (approximately 38 spaces). Bank of America owns the westernmost 1/3 of the lot. During bank hours, the westernmost 1/3 of the lot is exclusively for parking while banking.

Did You Know? The seventh commandment forbids theft, that is the taking of another's property without the reasonable will of the owner. This is not limited to goods, but rather includes: unjust wages, business fraud, unfair pricing for goods. In the case of urgent necessity (food, clothing, shelter), this commandment is broken if we do not assist those in need. (CCC#2408-2409)

Mission Statement of the Cathedral Parish St. Augustine, Florida
