This Week in Our Parish

THURSDAY, APRIL 2
7:45 a.m. – Altar Guild, Cathedral

Mass is live streamed on the Cathedral Basilica of St. Augustine Facebook page every morning at 8 a.m.

As so much continues to be unknown as our nation faces the COVID-19 pandemic, it is best for planning purposes to consider all parish activities canceled or postponed until further notice. Once there is some indication that it is safe for people to be able to assemble, parish staff and leadership will assess how best to get events re-scheduled as well as for meetings and other activities to start anew. Thank you for your understanding and continued support of the Cathedral Parish.

Mission Statement of the Cathedral Parish St. Augustine, Florida

WE ARE CHRIST'S EYES, EARS, MOUTH, HANDS, AND FEET—SENT OUT TO DO JUSTICE, ESPECIALLY FOR THE POOR AND OPPRESSED, TO MINISTER TO THE NEEDS OF THE COMMUNITY, TO BE FAITHFUL STEWARDS OF GOD'S CREATION—AWAKENING FAITH AMONG THE HOPELESS, AND PROMOTING LIFE EVEN WITHIN THE CULTURE OF DEATH.

Cathedral Rectory office hours: 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Monday-Thursday and 9:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. Friday.

The Cathedral is open from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for individual prayer. (Please refer to the parish's website, thefirstparish.org, for the most recent information on the hours the church is open.)

As they are available, the priests of the parish will be in the Cathedral to hear confessions, as requested, and for individuals to receive Holy Communion, as permitted.

"Did I Not Tell You That If You Believe You Will See the Glory of God?" -- Jn 11:40

This year's Summer School of Theology, sponsored by the Office of Christian Formation, will be a study of the Gospel according to Saint John. It will be presented by Msgr. Christopher Schreck the week of June 15 - 19, 2020 in the Wisdom Center at Marywood.

Msgr. Schreck is a priest of the Diocese of Savannah and has spent most of the last thirty years in seminary education and administration. He recently completed his appointment as Rector/President of the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus, Ohio. He joined the faculty there in 2007 as Professor of Sacred Scripture. He has also served at our regional seminary in Boynton Beach as well as St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia.

Registration prior to May 27 costs $175.00 and covers materials, resources and daily lunch. Contact the Office of Christian Formation at (904) 262-3200 for information.

We are participating in a PARISH-WIDE survey!

As part of the Diocese of St. Augustine's Strategic Planning Process, the Cathedral Parish will be participating in a parish survey about discipleship of Christ. It will be conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute and we need your participation and help!

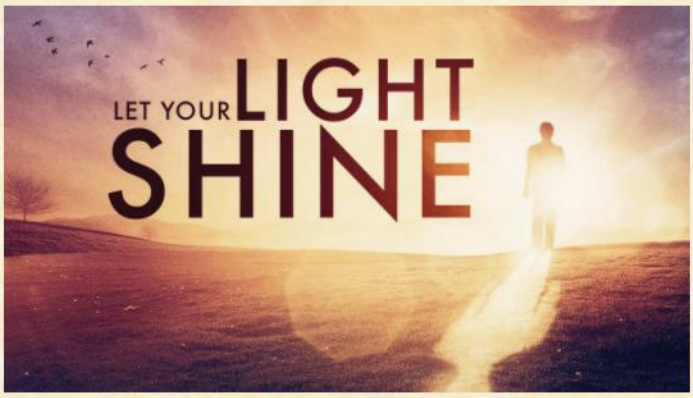

After Easter, you will be able to go to our parish's website to complete the survey which is called Disciple Maker Index. You will be asked to reflect on your own spiritual growth as well as provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you in being a disciple of Jesus Christ. All responses will be confidential and parish leadership will only receive information about the community as a whole.

And, if you don't have a computer, there will be opportunities for you to complete the survey in other ways.

Obviously, in order to capture a true sense of where the parish is as a community of faith at this point in time, we hope to have as many people in the parish as possible complete the survey. Over the next several weeks, we'll continue to remind you that the Disciple Maker Index is coming!

The deadline for submissions to the Cathedral bulletin is noon on Monday, six days prior to bulletin distribution.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for April 2020
We pray that those suffering from addiction may be helped and accompanied.

From the Pastor's Desk

As I write this column, it is Monday of the Fourth Week of Lent. The opening words of the First Reading at Mass this day came from the Prophet Isaiah:

"Thus says the Lord; 'Lo I am about to create new heavens and a new earth...'" (Is 65:17)

In a monthly devotional, Give Us This Day (published by the Benedictines of The Liturgical Press and similar to Magnificat), the reflection written by Kathy McGovern is certainly appropriate for this time:

> "Lo, I am about to create new heavens and a new earth, God says. A new earth sounds wonderful right now, doesn't it? A more peaceful earth, a cleaner earth, a place of peace and of healing."

Considering the fact that the reflection was penned several months before publication, its insight is so fitting as our world faces the realities of the COVID-19 pandemic.

However, this renewal, as Isaiah prophesies, was needed in his time just as it is necessary in every age and era. Its fullness comes in the person of Jesus Christ – the Incarnate Word of God the Father. In our encounters with Him, renewal of the earth – from which we have been fashioned by the Creator (cf. Gn 2:7) – happens and must be sustained.

So in these challenging times what are you doing from where you are to help others encounter Christ? It may be as simple as a phone call, a text message or a social media post that reminds someone God is in our midst – Emmanuel, God-with-us.

Love, Father Tom

❖How to make a Spiritual Communion when Mass is banned because of coronavirus

by Doug Mainwaring, lifesitenews.com

If you are unable to attend Mass because of measures taken by your diocese to halt the spread of the coronavirus or are otherwise homebound, consider making an act of Spiritual Communion.

Saints down through the ages have recommended this simple practice.

"If we are deprived of Sacramental Communion, let us replace it, as far as we can, by spiritual communion, which we can make every moment; for we ought to have always a burning desire to receive the good God," said St. Jean-Marie Vianney. "Communion is to the soul like blowing a fire that is beginning to go out, but that has still plenty of hot embers; we blow, and the fire burns again," he continued. "After the reception of the Sacraments, when we feel ourselves slacken in the love of God, let us have recourse at once to spiritual communion. When we cannot go to the church, let us turn towards the tabernacle; no wall cannot separate us from the good God."

St. Thomas Aquinas described Spiritual Communion as "an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Holy Sacrament and a loving embrace as though we had already received Him."

"What a source of grace there is in spiritual Communion!" declared St. Josemaría Escrivá. "Practice it frequently and you'll have more presence of God and closer union with him in your life."

"When you do not receive communion and you do not attend Mass, you can make a spiritual communion, which is a most beneficial practice," wrote St. Teresa of Jesus, "by it the love of God will be greatly impressed on you."

Act of Spiritual Communion Prayer:

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

A Prayer for Our Uncertain Times

May we who are merely inconvenienced remember those whose lives are at stake.

May we who have no risk factors remember those most vulnerable.

May we who have the luxury of working from home remember those who must choose between preserving their health and making their rent.

May we who have the flexibility to care for our children when their schools close remember those who have no options.

May we who have to cancel our trips remember those who have no safe place to go.

May we who are losing our margin money in the tumult of the economic market remember those who have no margin at all.

May we who settle in for a quarantine at home remember those who have no home.

As fear grips our country, let us choose love.

And during this time when we may not be able to physically wrap our arms around each other, let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors. Amen.

- Fr. Michael Graham, S.J. jesuitresource.org

An Examination of Conscience

- Do I daily seek to foster a relationship with God and His Church?
- Do I have a genuine love for my family and friends, neighbors, co-workers and others I regularly encounter?
- Do I contribute to the well-being and happiness of my home, place of work and community in which I live?
- Do I provide assistance to the poor and needy?
- Am I too ready to place blame on others?
- Do I have to be in control of all people and all situations?
- Do I appreciate the sacredness and gift of life in all forms?
- Do I appreciate the gift of Most Holy Eucharist, receiving it worthily?
- Have I deliberately missed Mass on Sunday or holy days of obligation? Am I habitually late for Mass or leave before Mass has concluded?
- Do I use the earth's resources wisely, caring for the good of God's creation?
- Do I gossip about others?
- Have I forgiven others who have hurt me? Have I apologized to those whom I have hurt?
- Am I lazy? Do I complain too readily? Am I bitter? Do I hold grudges against others?
- Do I use offensive language?
- Do I watch, listen to or use inappropriate media, particularly pornography?
- Have I entered into an illicit relationship? How has it harmed my marriage or my responsibilities as a parent?
- Are those who I consider my friends or companions, people who assist me in growing my relationship with God?
- Do I have any unhealthy obsessions, prejudices or fears?
- Do I do my best to practice the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy?
- Do I neglect my prayer life?
- Do I regularly seek to receive the Sacraments of the Church, particularly, the Sacrament of Penance and the Holy Eucharist?

The Cathedral is open from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for individual prayer. (Please refer to the parish's website, thefirstparish.org, for most recent information on the hours the church is open.) As they are available, the priests of the parish will be in the Cathedral to hear confessions, as requested.

Dear Friends,

St. Joseph Renewal Center is closed as we follow health and safety precautions asked of us by our country. The Sisters of St. Joseph at the Renewal Center are still here and are available to you if you wish to speak with a Sister. To make an appointment to speak with one of us:

Email stjosephrenewal@ssjfl.org with your phone number and a few of your available dates and times. You will receive an email back from one of the Sisters with the date and time that a Sister will call you.

We continue to pray daily for you and your intentions.

In St. Joseph,

Sister Florence and Sister Jane

A Letter from Bishop Felipe J. Estévez
to the Catholic Community Regarding Father John H. Dux
March 23, 2020

Today, I am sad to announce that I have removed the priestly faculties of Father John H. Dux, who was accused of sexual abuse of a minor when he served as a parochial vicar of St. Patrick Parish in Gainesville. Father Dux is retired and living in South Carolina. The Diocese of Charleston and the Archdiocese for Military Services-USA have been notified of his status.

The diocese received the complaint in May 2019 from an attorney acting on behalf of his client. Father Dux's faculties were suspended immediately, pending the outcome of an investigation. Information about the claim was provided to the state attorney for the 13th Judicial Circuit (Hillsborough County), where the abuse allegedly occurred in 1976. Due to the statute of limitations in Florida, the state did not initiate an investigation.

To determine the truth, and to ensure the safety and well-being of our vulnerable populations, the Diocesan Review Board conducted a thorough review of the claim. They determined there was a semblance of truth and found the allegation to be credible.

We have had no prior credible allegations of sexual misconduct with a minor against Father Dux. He was ordained to the priesthood on April 14, 1973. And while he has not been found guilty in a civil court of law, the matter is still under canonical review by the church.

If anyone has been harmed by Father Dux or any other employee of the diocese, please contact law enforcement or the Florida Department of Children and Families by calling 1-800-962-2873. You can also contact the Diocesan Victim Assistant Coordinator, Tina Nugent, by calling (904) 208-6979 or email inquiries@dosafl.com.

The U.S. Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People calls for a "zero tolerance" policy regarding clergy who have a confirmed or proven allegation of sexual misconduct with a minor child. I am committed to providing a safe environment for children and vulnerable adults, and no clergy or other employees will remain in ministry who are a danger to them.

I apologize for the publicity that will surround this announcement. I invite all of us to come together as a family of faith, ready to be a healing people—a forgiving and loving people as Christ calls us to be.

Father Dux served in the following locations of the diocese:

Parochial Vicar, St. Paul Parish, Jacksonville	1973-1974
Religion Teacher, Bishop Kenny High School, Jacksonville	1973-1974
Parochial Vicar, St. Patrick Parish, Gainesville	1974-1977
Administrator, St. Madeleine Sophie Parish, High Springs*	1977-1983
Pastor, St. Madeleine Sophie Parish, High Springs*	1983-1985
Chaplain, United States Navy	1985-1998

*St. Madeleine Parish, at this time, oversaw the missions of Holy Cross in Cross City, and St. John the Evangelist in Chiefland.

Did You Know? The most direct offense against truth is lying, which is to speak or act against the truth so as to lead another into error. However, there are several other offenses against truth: judging others rashly, detraction, calumny, and boasting. These actions offend the dignity of the human person by damaging his/her relationship with others and with God. (CCC #2477-2485)

Roman Catholic Norms for Those Who Serve as a Godparent or Sponsor

The role of those who serve as godparents and sponsors in the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation is vitally important in the life of the Catholic Church. Those who are chosen for these roles are to show the person for whom they serve as godparent/sponsor a strong commitment to living the Catholic faith. And so, the Church has set up a minimum set of norms for godparents/sponsors:

- The godparent/sponsor must be designated by the one being baptized or confirmed;
- In the case of infants being baptized, it is the parents who designate the godparents;
- Parents may never serve as godparents/sponsors for their children;
- The godparent/sponsor must be a practicing Roman Catholic, be at least 16 years old and have received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist);
- They must be actively and regularly practicing the faith; if they are married, the Church must be able to recognize the marriage as sacramental.

In the United States, if the godparent/sponsor is not known to the pastor, a letter or affidavit is usually obtained from the person's parish stating that the person is a Catholic in good standing and may serve as a godparent/sponsor.

In the case of Baptism, a person may have two godparents; however, one must be male and the other female. A non-Catholic Christian may serve as a godparent, but they are listed as a "Christian witness" and the other godparent must fulfill the above norms.
