❖ January 27: The Mother Church of the Diocese - A Jewel with an Intriguing History, by Fr. Tom Willis

While every diocese has a Cathedral, its Mother Church, the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Augustine and its connection to the city of St. Augustine has a rich and intriguing history; indeed, as America's first parish, it has a prominent place in the history of Catholicism in the United States. This workshop, presented by Fr. Tom Willis, will explore the Mother Church of our diocese, a true jewel to be cherished. The workshop will take place on Wednesday, January 27 at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Life Center, Sacred Heart Church, 2752 Blanding Blvd., Jacksonville FL 32244. Free will offering of $5.00. Registration is required to ensure safe social distancing; to register, please visit dosaformation.com/registrations.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In 1870, Pope Pius IX solemnly declared Saint Joseph, the Husband of Mary, as the Patron of the Catholic Church. Just a little over a month ago, Pope Francis promulgated through the Apostolic Letter Patris Corde ("A Father's Heart") that the Church would observe a year in honor of Saint Joseph to commemorate the 150th Anniversary of this declaration.

So that we can turn to Saint Joseph in this year, I have had prepared a holy card which will be distributed following Masses this weekend. The prayer that is on the card is the one that Pope Francis gives at the conclusion of the Apostolic Letter I mentioned above. The sentiment of the prayer is simple and straightforward: "Blessed Joseph,..., show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage and defend us from every evil." The artwork I chose for the holy card comes from the 17th century and the artist Gerard van Honthorst. It depicts an elderly Joseph as a carpenter, working with his tools in a darkened space. Yet, the Child Jesus holds a candle to provide light so he can accomplish his task.

Also, on Monday, January 18 the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity begins. Each year all Christians are reminded of the prayer of Jesus on the night before his death, "I pray that they all may be one" (John 17:21). This year's theme is: "Abide in love and you shall bear much fruit." In a world torn by so much strife and discord, may all efforts to unite Christians -- as well as the human family -- find the prayerful support of Saint Joseph.

Love, Father Tom

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OPENING SONG Seek Ye First

Seek ye first the kingdom of God
and his righteousness,
and all these things shall be added unto you;
Allelu, alleluia.

Ask, and it shall be given unto you,
seek, and you shall find,
knock, and the door shall be opened unto you;
Allelu, alleluia.

You do not live by bread alone,
but by ev'ry word
that comes forth from the mouth of God;
Allelu, alleluia.

Where two or three are gathered in my name,
there am I in their midst;
and whatsoever you ask I will do;
Allelu, alleluia.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory.
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Did You Know? When we pray to Our Father we develop two fundamental dispositions: the desire to become like Him and a humble and trusting heart. Even though we are created in the image of God, we must be continually restored to His likeness and we can do that by grace alone. With a humble and trusting heart, we are able to turn and become like children. (CCC #2784,2785)
