FROM THE DESK OF FR. JOHN TETLOW

Recently I wrote to you about my pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela in Spain. Now that I have had this experience I would like to share a few thoughts.

A pilgrimage is a journey, often into a foreign place, a sacred place. It is a journey made for an exalted spiritual experience.

In the Christian pilgrimage tradition, the practice revolves around visiting either sites of significance in the Bible, those concerning the life of Christ, or the lives of the saints. The three main destinations of Christian pilgrimage for the Catholic Church are Jerusalem, Rome, and Santiago de Compostela.

A pilgrimage is an experience to which we are called. It is a journey to walk with Christ. Our life is a pilgrimage. We are called to seek and to walk with our Lord on a daily basis – spending time in prayer, seeking to find God's desire for us and growing in holiness.

God is, and always is, waiting for us to come to Him. His invitation is ever present. Our human hearts are made for God and will only be finally satisfied when in union with Him. How correct Saint Augustine was when he stated "our hearts are restless until they rest in God." There are times in prayer when we are quiet and still, that we become deeply affected by His call and we become aware of His summons. He is always calling us to more and wanting to draw us to Himself.

Following Christ can be difficult and some people quit. Jesus says try to enter through the narrow gate. The road that leads to life is narrow. Our response to Christ's call must be total. We have to be willing to offer everything we are to God. The Gospel exhorts us to no longer walk for ourselves but to desire to walk in step with the Lord who gave everything for us.

Living with Christ at our center, desiring his will in our life, wanting only to serve Him in others is the only path to true joy and happiness. It is the path that leads to the house of the Father.

Fr. John

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

❖ October 3: Rosary for Recovery at the Shrine

Once a month, please come and pray! The Rosary for Recovery is prayed on the first Sunday of every month at 3 p.m. to break the chains of addiction. Where: Our Lady of La Leche National Shrine, 101 San Marco Avenue, St. Augustine. All are welcome! Friends, family, anyone who would like to crush the chains of addiction. A powerfully simple Rosary is offered in front of Jesus in the Tabernacle. For more information contact Sean, 904-377-5425. Please spread the word and encourage people to come and pray!

DID YOU KNOW? Even though the Holy Spirit is the first to awake in us faith, He was the last of the persons of the Holy Trinity to be revealed. This is because, as St. Gregory of Nazianzus explains, "It was not prudent, when the divinity of the Father had not yet been confessed, to proclaim the Son openly and, when the divinity of the Son was not yet admitted, to add the Holy Spirit..."
(Catechism of the Catholic Church #684)

OPENING HYMN For the Beauty of the Earth

For the beauty of the earth,
For the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies:
Lord of all, to you we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth and friends above;
For all gentle thoughts and mild:
Lord of all, to you we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

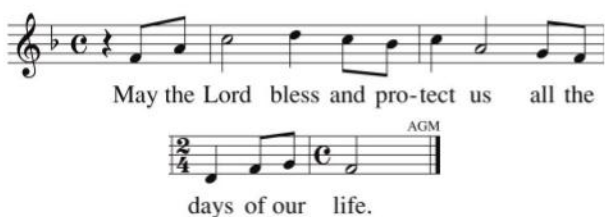

For your Church that evermore
Lifts its holy hands above,
Off'ring up on ev'ry shore
Its pure sacrifice of love:
Lord of all, to you we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

For yourself, best Gift Divine,
To this world so freely giv'n;
Word Incarnate, God's design,
Peace on earth and joy in heav'n:
Lord of all, to you we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

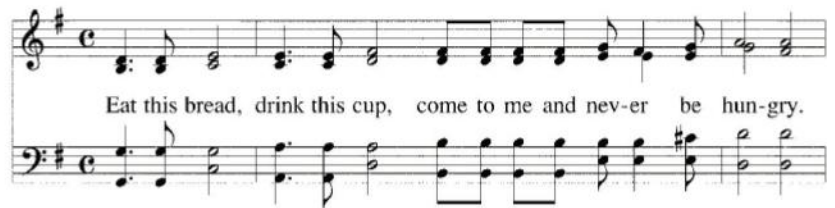

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory.
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

From the Synodality Steering Committee The call for worldwide synodality

Cardinal Grech, the General Secretary of the Synod of Bishops, recalled in the proclamation of this Synod, that synods were a typical practice of the first millennium of the Church, a practice that continued within the Orthodox Church. He described this process as "a great vision, which unites the tradition of the Eastern and Western Churches, giving to a synodal Church that principle of unity that was even lacking in the Church of the Fathers... from this synodal journey, we can also expect with confidence great fruits on the ecumenical level." <https://bit.ly/3d42VEg> (Synod of Bishops website for interview)

❖Feast Day Tip: St. Francis of Assisi, October 4

Monday is the feast of St. Francis of Assisi! Despite his popularity there aren't many traditions for celebrating his feast. In Assisi, Italy, mostaccioli, an almond cookie, are popular and known for being St. Francis's favorite. Because they could be difficult to find outside of Assisi, biscotti would be a delicious substitute.

Visit feastday.co for more help celebrating the feasts and seasons.
