A NOTE FROM FROM DR. BERNIE SANS, CATHEDRAL MUSIC DIRECTOR

When I wrote and submitted my letter of retirement on July 15, 2021 to Fr. John, the Diocese of St. Augustine and others who needed to have the information contained therein, I did not realize that the time would so quickly pass and that October 17, 2021 would be so quick to show up. But, having no control over these things, we now have arrived at my last official day of work at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Augustine - and I really have to say thank you.

Thank you for the commitment of the Cathedral choirs and Cantors and for the beauty they create; to the children and parents of the children's choirs; to the staff of the Cathedral parish; to all in the parish and in the city who supported the Art Walk Recitals and the major concerts held in our beautiful church; to the thousands of musicians who have created lasting musical memories these past 13 years. The list goes on.

More importantly I want to thank Fr. Tom Willis for his trust, and Shannon McKay for her artistry, skill, friendship and collaborative spirit, and for the goosebumps she gave me as she sat endlessly at the organ console.

And most importantly: to you, the faithful of Cathedral Parish, for many sung Masses, vespers and devotions. Your collective sound of singing our faith is what gives credence to a music director. Without your active participation I wouldn't have continued in this ministry for the last forty-seven years (13 with you!).

Now it's time to hand over the keys. The search for my successor is quickly drawing to an end, with scheduled auditions in the near future.

This is not goodbye. St. Augustine is my home. I will continue to serve as a substitute organist here and in other churches, and spend some quality time with my family.

Ad maiorem Dei gloriam!

Bernie

FROM THE DESK OF FR. MATTHEW IBOK

THE SYNOD ON SYNODALITY

A synod is an assembly of bishops gathering to discuss some specific subjects. The discussion is aimed at assisting the Pope to govern and lead the universal Church. The modern Synod of Bishops was begun in 1965 shortly after the Second Vatican Council by Pope St. Paul VI. That synod was aimed at responding to and implementing the deliberations of Vatican II documents. It also was aimed at keeping alive and strengthening the spirit of collegiality fostered during the Vatican II Council's sessions.

Since his election in 2013, Pope Francis has convoked synods on the themes of "Pastoral Challenge of the Family in the Context of Evangelization" (2014); "Youth, Faith and Vocational Discernment" (2018); "The Church in the Pan-Amazon Region" (2019); and "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission" (2021-2023). Pope Francis has made it abundantly clear that the Synod on Synodality will be characterized by listening, prayer, discernment, learning, teaching, fraternal collaboration, and journeying together among others.

Many of the pre-synodal meetings, including preparatory working documents and venues, have been accomplished so far by the Diocesan Synodality Steering Committee to ensure a huge success at parish/deanery and diocesan levels. It is a synod that is divided into three major phases to include the diocesan, continental and universal levels that will take place in Rome in 2023. These phases could be described as a "bottom-up" approach to the Synod by Pope Francis, in the sense that the deliberations begin at the grassroots with listening sessions at local parishes or deaneries across every diocese in the world. The approach gives everyone (clergy, religious and laity) the opportunity to contribute to the conversations.

Our own diocesan phase begins on this, the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 17, 2021, with the Eucharistic celebration at St. Joseph's Church by Bishop Estévez. All are invited to be part of this unique celebration. Personally, I will have an opportunity to participate in two places: one in St. Augustine and the other in Ikot Ekpene, my home diocese in Nigeria, where I will be for a month from October 21 to November 21 for my first vacation since Covid-19. I request your prayers for a safe and rewarding trip.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Seating is limited and registration is required at <https://luncheons4life.com/jacksonville/>

DID YOU KNOW? The term "Spirit" comes from the Hebrew word "ruah" which means breath, air, wind. This sensory image is used by Jesus Himself to suggest the transcendent newness of He who is personally God's breath, the divine spirit. He also refers to Him as "Paraclete" which means "he who is called to one's side."

CLOSING HYMN

Lord, Help Us Walk Your Servant Way

Lord, help us walk your servant way
Wherever love may lead
And, bending low, forgetting self,
Each serve the other's need.

You came to earth, O Christ, as Lord,
But pow'r you laid aside.
You lived your years in servanthood,
In lowliness you died.

No golden scepter but a towel
You place within the hands
Of those who seek to follow you
And live by your commands.

You bid us bend our human pride
Nor count ourselves above
The lowest place, the meanest task
That waits the gift of love.

Lord, help us walk your servant way
Wherever love may lead
And, bending low, forgetting self,
Each serve the other's need.

❖Feast Day Tip: Pope St. John Paul II, October 22

A number of feasts celebrated in October are celebrated with one of the saint's favorite foods, and the feast of St. John Paul II is no exception. In his first visit to Poland after becoming pope, it was revealed how much he loved cream cake and the cake had since become known as kremówka papieska, papal cream cake, in Poland. If papal cream cake seems a little difficult to make in the middle of the week, consider a Polish meal.

Visit feastday.co for more help celebrating the feasts and seasons.

MISSION STATEMENT OF THE CATHEDRAL PARISH ST. AUGUSTINE, FLORIDA

WE ARE CHRIST'S EYES, EARS, MOUTH, HANDS, AND FEET—SENT OUT TO DO JUSTICE, ESPECIALLY FOR THE POOR AND OPPRESSED, TO MINISTER TO THE NEEDS OF THE COMMUNITY, TO BE FAITHFUL STEWARDS OF GOD'S CREATION—AWAKENING FAITH AMONG THE HOPELESS, AND PROMOTING LIFE EVEN WITHIN THE CULTURE OF DEATH.

You are not alone...

There is no need to feel alone when real help is available for an unplanned pregnancy. Caring Choices offers help through counseling, support, education, resources, and referrals. This is one decision not to face alone! Call (866) 901-9647.

If you are struggling with emotional or spiritual pain following an abortion, there are two post-abortion healing ministries available that will lovingly help transform your pain to hope, and through reconciliation provide peace: Project Rachel, (904) 923-9203, with professional counselors and individual priests; and Rachel's Vineyard, (904) 221-3232, a group weekend retreat.

ATTENTION

The Diocese of St. Augustine treats all allegations of sexual misconduct seriously and deals with all allegations in a prompt, confidential, and thorough manner.

To report abuse by a bishop, call (800) 276-1562 or visit www.reportbishopabuse.org.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for October 2021 Missionary Disciples

We pray that every baptized person may be engaged in evangelization, available to the mission, by being witnesses of a life that has the flavor of the Gospel.
