The Most Reverend Erik T. Pohlmeier
 will be celebrating the Feast Day of St. Benedict the Moor
 at the 8:00 am Mass at St. Benedict's on Sunday, March 24, 2024.

Benedict the Moor, OFM (Italian: Benedetto il Moro; 1526 – 4 April 1589) was a Sicilian Franciscan friar. Born of enslaved Africans in San Fratello, he was freed at birth and became known for his charity.

As a young man he joined a Franciscan-affiliated hermit group, of which he became the leader. In 1564 he was sent to the Franciscan friary in Palermo, where he continued good works. He died in 1589 and was canonized as a Catholic saint by Pope Pius VII in 1807.

St. Benedict the Moor
 1526 - 1589
 Memorial - 4 April

PALM SUNDAY AND BLESSING OF THE FLEET

Today is Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion. On this day we remember Jesus' entry into Jerusalem in the days leading up to His Passion, Death and Resurrection. We hear the Passion Narrative, this year from the Gospel of Saint Mark. Since this Gospel was most likely the first to be written, it's also the first written narrative we have of Jesus' Passion and Death. Like so much of this Gospel, the Narrative moves swiftly and quickly. One Scripture scholar has termed Mark's Gospel as the Gospel of action and passion!

The 11:00 a.m. Mass begins in the West Courtyard of the Cathedral. There Bishop Erik Pohlmeier will preside at the Procession and Blessing of Palms. Then Mass will be celebrated, followed by our City's annual tradition of the Blessing of the Fleet, including the procession of the St. Augustine Royal Family. It's a wonderful day filled with pageantry and the solemnity of the liturgical rites of our Catholic faith.

Supreme Chaplain's Challenge

"Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me." (Jn 12:26)

Next to Our Lady, what greater model of faithful service to Jesus do we have than St. Joseph, the Lord's own adoptive father? In humble obedience to God, Joseph protected Mary and Jesus under the most difficult of circumstances. Although he says not a word in Scripture, the "silent" Joseph speaks volumes through his faithful actions. He is a model of manhood and discipleship for all. As we celebrated the feast day of St. Joseph, continue praying for the intercession of St. Joseph for your families.

Delicious and Fun-filled!

An evening of traditional Irish food piped in by our very own bag-piper, Brother Dennis McCarthy, and challenging trivia by Claude Fiori and his St. Augustine Ministry of Trivia. Thanks to all who attended!

Spiritual Adoption Program – March 25 to December 25, 2024

DAY 1
 Developing Baby
 "I'm here!"

At the moment the father's sperm and mother's egg unite a new and unrepeatable human being comes into existence, complete with his own unique set of DNA. Although he is only one cell, everything about this little person is already present: color of eyes, blood type, the height he will grow to be, color of hair – everything! He will play a role in his family and his community – a role only he can play! Nothing is added after conception to make him a complete human being. He already exists; all he needs is nourishment, a safe, warm environment, and most of all – love. His parents don't even know he exists yet. Pray for them to safely bring their baby to birth so he can fulfill the mission God has for him.

Isaiah 49:1 – "Before birth the Lord called me, from my mother's womb, he gave me my name."

Suggested Prayer: +Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted, who is in danger of abortion. Amen

The Divine Mercy Novena begins on Good Friday, March 29.

Sunday, April 7, 2024

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament immediately after the 11:00 a.m. Mass until 3:00 p.m. in the Cathedral

3:00 p.m. Chaplet of Divine Mercy In the Cathedral

"At three o'clock, implore My mercy, especially for sinners; and, if only for a brief moment, immerse yourself in My Passion, particularly in My abandonment at the moment of agony. This is the hour of great mercy. In this hour, I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in virtue of My Passion." - Jesus to St. Faustina, Diary 1320

"My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy." - Jesus to St. Faustina, Diary 699

The Passion of Our Lord

Palm Sunday - Year B

Mark 14:1—15:47

✠ = Christ; N = Narrator; V = Voice; C = Crowd

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

N The Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread were to take place in two days' time. So, the chief priests and the scribes were seeking a way to arrest him by treachery and put him to death. They said,

Crowd: Not during the festival, for fear that there may be a riot among the people.

N When he was in Bethany reclining at table in the house of Simon the leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of perfumed oil, costly genuine spikenard. She broke the alabaster jar and poured it on his head. There were some who were indignant.

Crowd: Why has there been this waste of perfumed oil? It could have been sold for more than three hundred days' wages and the money given to the poor.

N They were infuriated with her. Jesus said,

✠ Let her alone. Why do you make trouble for her? She has done a good thing for me. The poor you will always have with you, and whenever you wish you can do good to them, but you will not always have me. She has done what she could. She has anticipated anointing my body for burial. Amen, I say to you, wherever the gospel is proclaimed to the whole world, what she has done will be told in memory of her.

N Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went off to the chief priests to hand him over to them. When they heard him they were pleased and promised to pay him money. Then he looked for an opportunity to hand him over. On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, his disciples said to him,

Crowd: Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?

N He sent two of his disciples and said to them,

✠ Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there.

N The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover. When it was evening, he came with the Twelve. And as they reclined at table and were eating, Jesus said, ✠ Amen, I say to you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me.

N They began to be distressed and to say to him, one by one,

V Surely it is not I?

N He said to them,

✠ One of the Twelve, the one who dips with me into the dish. For the Son of Man indeed goes, as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed. It would be better for that man if he had never been born.

N While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, and said,

✠ Take it; this is my body.

N Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them,

✠ This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

N Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. Then Jesus said to them,

✠ All of you will have your faith shaken, for it is written: I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be dispersed. But after I have been raised up, I shall go before you to Galilee.

N Peter said to him,

V Even though all should have their faith shaken, mine will not be.

N Then Jesus said to him,

✠ Amen, I say to you, this very night before the cock crows twice you will deny me three times.

N But he vehemently replied,

V Even though I should have to die with you, I will not deny you.

N And they all spoke similarly. Then they came to a place named Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, ✠ Sit here while I pray.

N He took with him Peter, James, and John, and began to be troubled and distressed. Then he said to them, ✠ My soul is sorrowful even to death. Remain here and keep watch.

N He advanced a little and fell to the ground and prayed that if it were possible the hour might pass by him; he said, ✠ Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Take this cup away from me, but not what I will but what you will.

N When he returned he found them asleep. He said to Peter, ✝ Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour? Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak.

N Withdrawing again, he prayed, saying the same thing. Then he returned once more and found them asleep, for they could not keep their eyes open and did not know what to answer him. He returned a third time and said to them,

✝ Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is to be handed over to sinners. Get up, let us go. See, my betrayer is at hand.

N Then, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived, accompanied by a crowd with swords and clubs who had come from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. His betrayer had arranged a signal with them, saying,

V The man I shall kiss is the one; arrest him and lead him away securely.

N He came and immediately went over to him and said, V Rabbi.

N And he kissed him. At this they laid hands on him and arrested him. One of the bystanders drew his sword, struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his ear. Jesus said to them in reply,

✝ Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs, to seize me? Day after day I was with you teaching in the temple area, yet you did not arrest me; but that the Scriptures may be fulfilled.

N And they all left him and fled. Now a young man followed him wearing nothing but a linen cloth about his body. They seized him, but he left the cloth behind and ran off naked. They led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes came together. Peter followed him at a distance into the high priest's courtyard and was seated with the guards, warming himself at the fire. The chief priests and the entire Sanhedrin kept trying to obtain testimony against Jesus in order to put him to death, but they found none. Many gave false witness against him, but their testimony did not agree. Some took the stand and testified falsely against him, alleging,

Crowd: We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with hands and within three days I will build another not made with hands.'

N Even so their testimony did not agree. The high priest rose before the assembly and questioned Jesus, saying,

V "Have you no answer? What are these men testifying against you?"

N But he was silent and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him and said to him,

V "Are you the Christ, the son of the Blessed One?"

N Then Jesus answered,

✝ I am; and 'you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming with the clouds of heaven.'

N At that the high priest tore his garments and said,

V "What further need have we of witnesses? You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?"

N They all condemned him as deserving to die. Some began to spit on him. They blindfolded him and struck him and said to him,

Crowd: Prophecy!

N And the guards greeted him with blows. While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the high priest's maids came along. Seeing Peter warming himself, she looked intently at him and said,

Crowd: You too were with the Nazorean, Jesus.

N But he denied it saying,

V I neither know nor understand what you are talking about.

N So he went out into the outer court. Then the cock crowed. The maid saw him and began again to say to the bystanders,

Crowd: This man is one of them.

N Once again he denied it. A little later the bystanders said to Peter once more,

Crowd: Surely you are one of them; for you too are a Galilean.

N He began to curse and to swear,

V I do not know this man about whom you are talking.

N And immediately a cock crowed a second time. Then Peter remembered the word that Jesus had said to him, "Before the cock crows twice you will deny me three times." He broke down and wept. As soon as morning came, the chief priests with the elders and the scribes, that is, the whole Sanhedrin held a council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate.

Pilate questioned him,

V Are you the king of the Jews?

N He said to him in reply,

✝ You say so.

N The chief priests accused him of many things. Again Pilate questioned him,

V Have you no answer? See how many things they accuse you of.

N Jesus gave him no further answer, so that Pilate was amazed. Now on the occasion of the feast he used to release to them one prisoner whom they requested. A man called Barabbas was then in prison along with the rebels who had committed murder in a rebellion. The crowd came forward and began to ask him to do for them as he was accustomed. Pilate answered,

V Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews?

N For he knew that it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed him over. But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Barabbas for them instead. Pilate again said to them in reply,

V Then what do you want me to do with the man you call the king of the Jews?

N They shouted again,

Crowd: Crucify him.

N Pilate said to them,

V Why? What evil has he done?

N They only shouted the louder,

Crowd: Crucify him.

N So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas to them and, after he had Jesus scourged, handed him over to be crucified. The soldiers led him away inside the palace, that is, the praetorium, and assembled the whole cohort. They clothed him in purple and, weaving a crown of thorns, placed it on him. They began to salute him with,

Crowd: Hail, King of the Jews!

N and kept striking his head with a reed and spitting upon him. They knelt before him in homage. And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple cloak, dressed him in his own clothes, and led him out to crucify him. They pressed into service a passer-by, Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross. They brought him to the place of Golgotha — which is translated Place of the Skull — They gave him wine drugged with myrrh, but he did not take it. Then they crucified him and divided his garments by casting lots for them to see what each should take. It was nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him. The inscription of the charge against him read, "The King of the Jews." With him they crucified two revolutionaries, one on his right and one on his left. Those passing by reviled him, shaking their heads and saying,

Crowd: Aha! You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself by coming down from the cross.

N Likewise the chief priests, with the scribes, mocked him among themselves and said,

Crowd: He saved others; he cannot save himself. Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross that we may see and believe.

N Those who were crucified with him also kept abusing him. At noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And at three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice,

✠ Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?

N which is translated,

✠ My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

N Some of the bystanders who heard it said,

Crowd: Look, he is calling Elijah.

N One of them ran, soaked a sponge with wine, put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink saying,

V Wait, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down.

N Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.

Kneel and Pause for a short time

N The veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom. When the centurion who stood facing him saw how he breathed his last he said,

V Truly this man was the Son of God!

N There were also women looking on from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of the younger James and of Joses, and Salome. These women had followed him when he was in Galilee and ministered to him. There were also many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem. When it was already evening, since it was the day of preparation, the day before the sabbath, Joseph of Arimathea, a distinguished member of the council, who was himself awaiting the kingdom of God, came and courageously went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate was amazed that he was already dead. He summoned the centurion and asked him if Jesus had already died. And when he learned of it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. Having bought a linen cloth, he took him down, wrapped him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that had been hewn out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance to the tomb. Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses watched where he was laid.

Since we launched the Cathedral's A Blessed Past, A Building for the Future Capital Campaign a few weeks ago, the sacrifice and generosity of many has helped us raise over $500,000! We are thankful for the many blessings this generosity will bring as we eagerly await a more livable, efficient, and welcoming rectory.

By now, you should have received your invitation to participate in this exciting initiative. Parish volunteers will be reaching out to many of you to help you discern your gift to the campaign. Please be sure to respond to their call and take the time to meet with them. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about the rectory renovation, bear witness to our Cathedral parish family, and build community.

If you decide to fulfill your campaign pledge with a check, please make it payable to Cathedral Basilica and note "Rectory Renovation" on the memo line.
